JULIA IS THE CALLER REQUESTING TO SPEAK TO AN OFFICER ABOUT COURT ORDERED CHILD CUSTODY. SHE ADVISED KEVIN IS OUT PARTYING AND HER DAUGHTER IS AT HIS PARENTS HOUSE AT 1628 1ST. JULIA ADVISES SHE IS SUPPOSED TO BE WITH HER.
2213HRS: K9-1 BE OUT AT JULIA'S TRAILER

Ofc. Smith add: I came to the station and attempted to call Julia back a couple times with no success. I went to Julia's trailer and was able to make contact with her. Julia explained that it is Kevin's weekend to have Madeline, but he was at the bar doing a "gig". She said Kevin plays until 2 or 3 am and then has to tear all of his equipment down. Julia showed me a parenting agreement from 2014 that indicates when one parent is working, the other has first right to watch the child. Julia said Madeline is supposedly being watched by Kevin's parents (Mary and Joseph Kramer). She went on to say Madeline's uncle also lives at that residence, and he has mental health issues. Julia said that the uncle may be watching Madeline, and she was concerned about her well being if left with this subject.

I advised Julia that I would not force the Kramer's to give her Madeline. I explained that it was late and not in the best interest of the child to be moving her around at this time of night. She advised she wanted to pick up Madeline if the Kramers were willing to give her Madeline. I advised her that I would speak to the Kramers and get back with her.

I went to 1628 1st Street and spoke with Mary and Joseph Kramer. They advised Kevin was done with his "gig" at 10 p.m. and should be home shortly. Both ensured me, that besides Kevin, they were the only other people that watched Madeline during the visitation. The Kramers requested that Madeline stay with them for the evening. I spoke with them regarding the parent's first right clause in Julia's parenting agreement. Mary told me that the judge at a hearing in 2015 told Julia that the grand parents (meaning the Kramers) could watch Madeline as well. I advised Mary that it may be in Kevin's best interest to get the parenting agreement amended to state that.

I went to the station and contacted Julia. I advised her of the outcome and that the incident would be documented.

I called Kevin, but got no answer. A message was left for him to call me back.
2340 HOURS KRAMER CALLED BACK

Ofc. Smith add: I called Kevin back and discussed the parent's first right clause in his parenting order. Kevin told me the judge said when he's only going to be gone a few hours it would be okay for his parents to watch Madeline. I told him, at this point in time, all we have to go on is the copy of the court order that

Julia showed me. I told him it would be in his best interest to attempt to have the order amended to allow his parents to keep Julia when he will only be away for a short time working. I also told him it would be in his best interest to follow what the order says. End of addition// AS K9-1
